"LIFE'S GREAT DECISION"

Toney L. Smith

Life is filled with decisions. We must make choices in which car we will buy or which house will best suit our families. Some of these decisions are insignificant and of little consequence, while others will have a far reaching and a very important part to play in our lives. The greatest decision in all of our lives is involved in the question: WHOM SHALL I SERVE?

Joshua gave the people a choice in the long ago. In Joshua 24:15 he said to them "And if it seem evil unto you to serve the LORD, choose you this day whom ye will serve; whether the gods which your fathers served that were on the other side of the flood, or the gods of the Amorites, in whose land ye dwell: but as for me and my house, we will serve the LORD." King David urged his son to serve God in 1 Chronicles 28:9. Jesus said that you and I must decide whom we will serve. He tells us that it is impossible to serve two masters (Matthew 6:24). Man cannot serve God and Satan at the same time. It would be a complete impossibility.

Sometimes men are confused as to whom they will serve, or how they can be in the Lord's service. The scripture says, "Submit yourselves therefore to God. Resist the devil..." (James 4:7). Men often become confused concerning these relationships. They resist God and submit to the devil. They get things turned around and we give the feast to the world and the left-overs are offered to God. The action in our part gives evidence to which of the two we have chosen.

When men submit to the devil they have given in to the temptations and to the lusts of the world (James 1:18-22). Sometimes men allow their hearts to be filled with pride (James 4:6-7) and become covetous and dishonest (James 5:1-4). Submitting to the devil causes one to err from the truth and eventually allow themselves to become unfaithful as a member of the Lord's church.

Men resist God when they refuse to hear, believe, and obey His word

(James 1:18-22). They reject the Son of God when they reject and receive not His word (John 12:48), and thus they lose their power to overcome (Ephesians 6:11). Serving God will always bring a sure victory over Satan (1 Corinthians 10:13).

Your choice is not: Will I serve someone! The question is, WHOM WILL I SERVE, GOD OR SATAN Let our answer be as was Joshua's, "... AS FOR ME AND MY HOUSE WE WILL SERVE THE LORD." The decision is yours, and it will be the greatest one you will ever make. There is coming a day when we will rejoice in the decision to faithfully serve the Lord.

Honoring both parents.

BACK HOME

REMEMBERING MOTHER AND DAD.

If I had the power to turn back the clock:
To the house that was home when I was a kid;
I know that I'd love it much more than I did;
If I could be back there at my mother's knee;
And hear once again all the things she told me;
I'd listen as I never listened before;
For she knew very well what life had in store;
And all the advice that my Dad used to give;
His voice I'll remember as long as I live;
But it just didn't seem so important back then;
O what I'd give to live it all over again.
But the years go on, and we cannot go back;
Whether we are born in a mansion or a shack;
But we can start now, in the hour that's here;
To do something more for ones we hold dear.
Since time in its flight is traveling fast;
Let's not spend it regretting that which is past;
But let's make tomorrow a happier day,
By doing our "good unto others" today.
