Welcome to Our Visitors

Thank you for choosing to worship with us. We would like to have a record of your attendance. Please fill out a visitor card. We look forward to seeing you again.

Sermon Titles for today:

AM: From Whence Cometh My Help? (Psalm 121).

PM: Afternoon service at 1:15.

We will enjoy our monthly Potluck today following morning services. We will honor Trae Smith our 2023 high school graduate.

CONGRATULATIONS!

To our 2023 graduating senior...

We are happy to announce that Trae Lawton Smith is graduating from Burleson Centennial High School. Trae is a very fine young man that we have all seen grow from a baby into a young man. His presence here in the Rendon congregation is a blessing to everyone. It has been a joy to watch you develop into the young man you are today.

Trae, as you step out into your “new world” there are several things that will help in your day-to-day living. (1) Be a Christian first and foremost in everything you do, (2) Be a leader for the Lord, (3) Do everything you can to stay away from “roadblocks” that might “detour” your faith, (4)

Make your faithfulness to God the priority in your everyday life, (5) Do all that you can to make a difference for good in your new surroundings, (6) Hold on tightly to your godly principles and convictions, and (7) Live with your heart firmly fixed on eternal salvation.

Real joy and happiness will be yours when you put first things first. Spend as much time as possible with the Lord’s people, pray always, live so as to honor your parents, love the Lord supremely and marry someone who will help you go to heaven. Whatever you choose as your life’s work, never forget what you are and whose you are (Galatians 2:20).

Trae, never forget your Rendon church family loves you and will be praying for you.

God Bless you always. (LYM)!

Each step that you take on life’s pathway should come from your determination to follow the road that is lit by God’s word. His word will give you the ability to follow a path that leads to heaven. LYM

WHAT THEN?

A young boy and an old man talked one day.

Said the boy, “I think I’ll go away

From father’s old farm... don’t know just when.”

The old man listened and asked, “WHAT THEN?”

“I guess I’ll have some fun in town...

The first few years - then settle down

And get a job and earn a lot.”

The old man smiled and asked, “THEN WHAT?”

“Why then I’ll meet the girl of my dreams,

Whose folks have money; and then it seems

I’ll buy a fine home with everything new.”

The old man asked again, “THEN WHAT WILL YOU DO?”

I guess I’ll invest in bonds and stocks,

That’s where they say opportunity knocks.

Maybe by that time I’ll be the governor.”

And the old man asked, “AND THEN, WHAT MORE?”

“Then I guess I’ll retire if I please.

And travel and live the life of ease.”

The old man thought as he scratched his head;

“THEN WHAT WILL YOU DO, MY SON?” he said.

For a moment the lad made no reply.

Then he answered slowly, “I guess I’ll die.”

A deep silence followed as both of them thought.

Then the old man asked softly, “MY BOY, THEN WHAT?”
