BE NOT CONFORMED TO THIS WORLD

Ron Boatwright

Paul tells us “I beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that ye present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service. And be not conformed to this world: but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is that good, and acceptable, and perfect, will of God.” (Romans 12:1-2). Giving ourselves “as a living sacrifice” requires that we “be not be conformed to this world.” If we conform to this world, the living sacrifice of ourselves becomes polluted and unacceptable to God. As Christians we are not to be conformed to the world in our speech (Ephesians 4:29), thoughts (Matthew 15:19), dress (1 Timothy 2:9-10), or actions (Col. 3:17). We are to be transformed or changed. We are to “Put off the old man with his deeds... and put on the new man” (Colossians 3:9-10).

Worldliness has no place in a Christian’s conduct. Worldliness is a malignancy eating away at the very souls of people. Worldliness weakens and destroys our love and respect for God and sets us in opposition to His will. One becomes worldly when he loves the things the world does. Worldliness begins with wanting to fit in and to get along with the world. “... whosoever therefore will be a friend of the world is the enemy of God” (James 4:4). John tells us “Love not the world, neither the things that are in the world. If any man love the world, the love of the Father is not in him. For all that is in the world, the lust of the flesh, and the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life, is not of the Father, but is of the world. And the world passeth away, and the lust thereof: but he that doeth the will of God abideth forever” (1 John 2:15-17).

As members of the Lord’s body, His church, we are not to have “spot or wrinkle or any such thing, but that she should be holy and without blemish” (Ephesians 5:27). We must “keep oneself unspotted from the world” (James 1:27) so we can go to Heaven.

We tend to become like those with whom we associate. “Be not deceived: evil communications corrupt good manners.” (1 Corinthians 15:33). We are not to participate in the sinful deeds of the world but, “Wherefore come out from among them, and be ye separate, saith the Lord, and touch not the unclean thing; and I will receive you” (2 Corinthians 6:17). We must carefully choose those with whom we associate. “I am a companion of all them that fear thee, and of them that keep thy precepts.” (Psalms 119:63). We cannot become a hermit even though we live in a world with sin all around us. But we must live in a way so, “That ye may be blameless and harmless, the sons of God, without rebuke, in the midst of a crooked and perverse nation, among whom ye shine as lights in the world” (Philippians 2:15). We are to “... have no fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness, but rather reprove them” (Ephesians 5:11). It is not sufficient just to abstain from the evil practices but we must also speak up against them.

But “If we say that we have fellowship with him, and walk in darkness, we lie, and do not the truth” (1 John 1:6). Pretending to be righteousness is nothing but hypocrisy. The Lord had much to say against hypocrites in Matthew chapter 23. Many people’s morality is the current and popular practice of others.

Even though we must provide for our families, many people in this materialistic world, equate individual success with the size of their cars, wardrobes, houses, and bank accounts. “And he said unto them, take heed, and beware of covetousness: for a man's life consisteth not in the abundance of the things which he possesseth” (Luke 12:15). We are to “If ye then be risen with Christ, seek those things which are above, where Christ sitteth on the right hand of God. Set your affection on things above, not on things on the earth” (Colossians 3:1-2). True success is pleasing God so that we can go to Heaven. We are to be “a peculiar people, zealous of good works” (Titus 2:14). In not being conformed to this world, you will “make your calling and election sure” (2 Peter 1:10) and be assured of a home in Heaven. (Adapted tls)
