Believing A Lie

By Ron Boatwright

Just after creation, Satan deceived Eve into believing a lie. God had said, “But of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil, thou shalt not eat of it: for in the day that thou eatest thereof thou shalt surely die” (Genesis 2:17). But Satan told Eve, “Ye shall not surely die” (Genesis 3:4). Ever since the creation mankind has been deceived by believing the lies of Satan.

We are warned to, “Let no man deceive you by any means...” (2 Thessalonians 2:3). “But evil men and seducers shall wax worse and worse, deceiving, and being deceived” (2 Timothy 3:13). How does Satan use people to deceive other people into believing his lies? “For such are false apostles, deceitful workers, transforming themselves into the apostles of Christ. And no marvel; for Satan himself is transformed into an angel of light. Therefore, it is no great thing if his ministers also be transformed as the ministers of righteousness; whose end shall be according to their works” (2 Corinthians 11:13-15).

A person who is deceived actually deceives himself into believing a lie. But we are warned, “Let no man deceive himself...” (1 Corinthians 3:18). Jesus says, “And ye shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free” (John 8:32). We must desire to know the truth, or we will believe the lies of Satan. “And with all deceivableness of unrighteousness in them that perish; because they received not the love of the truth, that they might be saved. And for this cause, God shall send them strong delusion, that they should believe a lie: That they all might be damned who believed not the truth but had pleasure in unrighteousness” (2 Thessalonians 2:10-12). Those who are deceived will lose their souls in eternity. This is such a great price to pay for believing a lie.

To keep from believing a lie we must do as those in Berea who “These were more noble than those in Thessalonica, in that they received the word with all readiness of mind, and searched the scriptures daily, whether those things were so” (Acts 17:11). We must read, study, and follow what God’s word says so, “That we henceforth be no more children, tossed to and fro, and carried about with every wind of doctrine, by the sleight of men, and cunning craftiness, whereby they lie in wait to deceive” (Ephesians 4:14).

Satan doesn’t care how much of God’s word one believes, as long as he doesn’t believe enough to be saved. Satan knows that at baptism one passes from an unsaved state to a saved state. This is where he has concentrated much of his effort in getting people to believe his lies. Some of his lies include infant baptism, sprinkling instead of immersion, and being saved before baptism by saying “the sinner’s prayer.”

When a person is “baptized” as an infant, it does him no good and when he becomes accountable, he becomes lost, but he thinks he is in a saved condition since his parents had him “baptized” as an infant. This is another lie of Satan. If a person is sprinkled instead of being baptized (immersed), it also does him no good and he is still lost since baptism is a burial (Romans 6:4). This again is a lie of Satan.

Satan has been successful in his efforts to redefine baptism in the minds of many people in getting them to believe that baptism is not essential to salvation even though the Lord says, “He that believeth and is baptized shall be saved...” (Mark 16:16). As a result, people remain lost. Satan has also fooled people into believing that one does not need to “be baptized” to wash away sins (Acts 22:16). As a result, people still remain lost in their sins by believing the lies of Satan. To say that baptism is not essential to salvation is to deny and reject what Jesus says. Jesus says, “He that rejecteth me, and receiveth not my words, hath one that judgeth him: the word that I have spoken, the same shall judge him in the last day” (John 12:48). Satan has convinced people that all one needs to do is “accept Jesus as their personal Saviour” and say “the sinner’s prayer” to be saved. To do this Satan has people to handle “the word of God deceitfully” (2 Corinthians 4:2) and to “change the truth of God into a lie” (Romans 1:25).

Denominationalism and its doctrines give people a false sense of security. Let’s be careful and “Take heed that ye be not deceived” (Luke 21:8) into believing any of the lies of Satan.
