Just A Thought!

People who wonder where this younger generation is headed would do well to consider from whence it came. And, ye fathers, provoke not your children to wrath: but bring them up in the nurture and admonition of the Lord (Eph. 6:4).

LOVE OR LIKE?

Bill Brandstatter

The two words above are confusing to many people. I can love someone but not like certain practices. I can love someone because of the soul which God put in him; but, I may not like their lifestyle or habits. God is a God of love; (1 John 4:18) but God does not like all of man's behaviors and practices.

He loved Adam and Eve. They were God's first human creations. God loved them so much that He gave them a paradise home. Since He loved them, He gave them some commandments to guide them in their paradise. They chose not to follow those commands. As a result, they were expelled from the Garden of Eden and death came upon the human race. He did not like what they did, but He loved them.

He loved people in Noah's day. People became more and more wicked (Genesis 6:5). God was sorry He made man and was grieved in His heart (Genesis 6:6). God still loved him but was sorrowful about the behavior and lifestyle of those created after His image. So, God caused a great flood to come upon the earth. Everything was destroyed. The only survivors were Noah, his wife, his sons and their wives and the animals in the ark. God didn't do this because He hated man. He did it because He didn't like what they were doing, and they created problems for themselves.

He loves people today. He wants all men to be saved and to come to knowledge of the truth (1 Timothy 2:4). God is in the soul saving business. Man is in the flesh business. Man wants to justify self. God wants to save man from sin. So, when man reads the Bible, he thinks in different terms than God does (Isaiah 55:8-9). Sometimes that which God condemns, man approves. That which man approves, God often condemns (Isaiah 10:30).

What man loves, God does not always like (Isaiah 5:20). Man loves pleasure and sinful activity. God loves man but hates every evil way. God does not hate the person, but He often does hate their behavior. Jesus said the gate some would go through is broad and wide and the gate to heaven is narrow and difficult (Matthew 7:13-14). Man must make choices. If we know the word of God, we can better make the choices God wants us to make. He gave us the Bible because he loves us, yet He does not always like the things that we do. He demonstrates His love for us in that while we were still sinners, Christ died for us (Romans 5:8).

PLEASE PARDON ME!

When you come to the Lord's table.
To be there with you I'm not able.
I have worked hard all week you see,
I need just one day, so please pardon me.
When you sing the songs of praise,
With you my voice I cannot raise.
I stayed up late and am tired as can be.
I beg you, please pardon me.
I will not join you when the Bible is read,
I just cannot drag myself from my bed.
I remember that truth will make me free,
But today, please pardon me.
And when you all lay by in store,
I have spent mine and there is no more.
I made no plans for giving back to Thee.
So as for now, please pardon me.
And when you bow down to pray
Say a word for me today.
I will someday bow on bended knee,
But for this time again, please pardon me.
