ABIGAIL

By Russ Earl

The story of Abigail really highlights the incredible power of wisdom and faith. She stood out as a woman who made the right choices while those around her were busy acting foolishly. Thanks to her courage and sound judgment, she managed to bring about peace and keep David from making a huge mistake.

In 1 Samuel 25, we find David hiding out from King Saul. During his time in the wilderness, he and his men had protected the flocks and workers of a wealthy man named Nabal. When David reached out for some food, Nabal not only turned him down but insulted him as well. It's no surprise that his name means 'fool.' His behavior toward David proves that it fits him perfectly.

Now, Abigail, Nabal's wife, was a different story altogether. The Bible describes her as “a woman of good understanding, and of a beautiful countenance” (1 Sam. 25:3). Once she heard what her husband had done, she wasted no time gathering up food and heading out to meet David (vv. 18–19). She stepped up and did what Nabal should have done in the first place. Her humble demeanor and wise words really shone through.

When Abigail finally met David, she bowed down before him and spoke with kindness. She urged him not to take revenge (vv. 23–24). Acknowledging her husband's foolishness, she still begged for mercy. Her wise words helped David realize that he needed to leave vengeance to God instead of taking matters into his own hands.

Thanks to Abigail's quick thinking, David was steered away from sin. Just ten days later, God struck Nabal down, and he died (v. 38). After that,

David took Abigail as his wife. She's remembered as a woman of discernment, bravery, and faith.

Lessons from Abigail:

- She used her wisdom to create peace.
- She showed courage by doing what was right, even when it was risky.
- She placed her trust in God to deliver justice.

Abigail serves as a powerful reminder that one righteous person can truly make a difference. Even when those around us choose pride or anger, we can opt for peace, act wisely, and bring glory to God.

THE MECHANIC.

Leroy Brownlow

A mechanic went to hear a visiting evangelist in a little town...

The preacher preached that night on money and presented the sermon under three points. First point: “Make all you can.” The mechanic nudged his wife and said, “That man is the best I've ever heard. He is no nitwit. He knows what it's all about. He is one smart man.” Second point: “Save all you can.” This excited the mechanic, and he whispered again, “This beats anything I've ever heard. He's smart enough to be President. This town has never had a preacher that could hold a candle to him.” The preacher commended hard work and thrift, denouncing laziness and waste. The mechanic couldn't keep quiet. He whispered, “I've believed this all my life.” Third point: “Give away all you can.” “Oh my,” exclaimed the mechanic, “now he's gone crazy. He has quit preaching and gone to meddling.”

When confronted with a Goliath-sized problem, which way do you respond: He's way too big to hit, or, like David, “He's too big to miss?” 1 Samuel 17:37.
