WHAT ARE YOU LOOKING FOR IN A CHURCH?

Because they have moved into a new community, awakened to the need for religion in their lives, or are unhappy with their “old church,” many people are “looking” for “a new church home.” What are they looking for? What are we looking for?

1. Some are following family and personal traditions, looking for a church like the one they left behind.
2. Because they don’t want to travel far to “attend services,” some look for a church nearby.
3. Desiring to feel welcome and wanted, some look for a church with “friendly people.”
4. Some look for a big church, where they can get lost in the crowd. Others look for a small church, where they can quickly get to know everybody.
5. Some look for a church with many “youth activities” and “family things.”
6. Some want a church that is trying to “solve world problems,” committed to social reform and community improvement.

Now, if you will look back over that list, you will notice that nothing is said about seeking a church where they can worship and serve God according to His revealed will. Many people are looking for a church that pleases them rather than one that pleases God! If you are interested in finding a church that pleases God, look for the following attributes:

1. A church that respects the sovereignty of God and the authority of Jesus Christ, the Son of God.
2. A church that respects the Bible as the inspired Word of God, and the gospel of Christ as the power of God unto salvation.
3. A church that strives to be like the churches of the New Testament—in name, organization, teaching, work, and worship.
4. A church that is concerned about lost souls and eternal destinies.
5. A church that puts its emphasis on the spiritual needs of man, instead of their social desires.

The Lord’s Church vows to “speak where the Bible speaks, and to be silent where it is silent.” She strives to follow the instructions of our Lord and the inspired writers in all things. These things should make us happy and should encourage us to be present in every assembly. The congregation we attend should be a beacon in our community.

PRAYER.

Toney L. Smith

Prayer is a wonderful blessing for the child of God. In Daniel 6:4-11, Daniel prays in spite of the king’s prohibition of prayer. Prayer is a powerful part of our lives. The words prayer, prayers, praying, and pray appear 451 times in the Bible. Prayer is important. Therefore, we will consider some aspects of this great privilege.

1. WHAT IS PRAYER? Prayer means to petition, request, or entreat. It is the way in which we communicate with God (Rom. 10:1). Prayer involves praise (Matt. 6:9); thanksgiving (Phil. 4:6); confession (1 John 1); and petitions (Phil. 4:6).
2. WHY SHOULD WE PRAY? Prayer is a direct command (1 Thess. 5:17). It is a means of obtaining blessings (James 4:2). Prayer is a powerful tool in the hands of the faithful (Acts 4:32).
3. WHEN SHOULD WE PRAY? Petitions should be as frequent as our needs, and thanksgivings as frequent as our blessings (Psalm 55:17).
4. FOR WHAT SHOULD WE PRAY? We should pray for strength in temptations (Matt. 26:41), for wisdom (James 1:5-7), for unity (John 17:20-21), for forgiveness (Matt. 6:12), for the sick (2 Sam. 2:16), and for people in general (1 Tim. 2:1).
5. WHAT HINDERS OUR PRAYERS? Prayers are hindered by allowing sin to remain in our lives (Isa. 59:1-2); by praying selfishly (James 4:3); and by doubting (James 1:5-8).
6. WHO CAN PRAY? The obedient (1 John 3:22), the submissive (1 John 5:14), and the faithful (John 15:7). Please notice that the sinner is not heard. One who continues in sin is not heard (1 Pet. 3:12; John 9:31; Psalm 66:18; Isa. 59:1-2).
7. HOW SHOULD WE PRAY? It really does matter how we pray. We must pray fervently (James 5:16) and pray believing (Mark 11:24). Our prayers are to be addressed to the Father, not to Jesus (John 16:23).
8. GOD REALLY DOES ANSWER PRAYERS. The Bible clearly teaches that God hears and answers our prayers and receives the thanksgiving we offer before Him (Isa. 65:24; Psalm 118:5; 120:1; Heb. 4:16; 1 Pet. 3:12; Matt. 7:7-11).

Prayer is the faithful child of God’s way of communicating with Him. It can bring about changes in our lives and in others’ lives as God works in the realm of His providence. May we ever have the attitude found in Luke 11:1; “... one of his disciples said unto him, Lord, teach us to pray...”
