JUST WHO ARE THE UNDERDOGS?

Robert Moss

One term that has become familiar to so many people is the term “underdog.” The word underdog means, “the one that is losing as in a contest; one that is handicapped, underprivileged, unfavored, etc.” Often, we find the use of this word in connection with athletic events. One team may be seen as the underdog while the other team is favored to win. However, it seems that there has been a gross misapplication of these thoughts. Some seem to look upon Christians as the underdogs in life. Such thinking is far from true.

The following favors the Christian.

The strength of Christ. Paul noted, “I can do all things through Christ which strengtheneth me” (Philippians 4:13). We are told, “For when we were yet without strength, in due time Christ died for the ungodly” (Romans 5:6). God gave Jesus, “power over all flesh, that he should give eternal life to as many as thou hast given him” (John 17:2). Man, indeed, left to himself is given that Jesus has promised this strength to all who will seek and obey Him.

The power of God. David spoke this truth concerning God, “thou reignest over all; and in thine hand is power and might; and in thine hand it is to make great; and to give strength unto all” (1 Chronicles 29:12). Jesus stated, “with God all things are possible” (Matthew 19:26). The Christian has the promise that “God shall supply all your need according to his riches in glory by Christ Jesus” (Philippians 4:19). God’s power reigns supreme and Christians have that power working for them.

The force of the Word as given through the Spirit. The Bible is the inspired Word of God given through the Holy Spirit, “That the man of God may be perfect, throughly furnished unto all good works” (2 Timothy 3:17). “Holy men of God spake as they were moved by the Holy Ghost” (2 Peter 1:21). The Gospel is “the power of God unto salvation” (Romans 1:16). The psalmist noted, “Thy word is a lamp unto my feet and a light unto my path” (Psalm 119:105). The Christian’s desire with expectation is firmly implanted in the truth of God’s Word.

Christians may be a minority population wise, but as one can plainly observe from these facts, the Christian is nowhere near being the “underdog” in this life.

WHAT ARE WE TELLING THEM?

Unknown Author

Words are an effective means of communication, and our actions can be just as effective. One major concern regarding our words and actions that warrants special attention is their influence on our young people.

What are we telling our young people... our children:

...when we use the same language the world uses (James 3:2-12)?

...when we involve ourselves with gossip (Proverbs 11:13)?

...when filthy jokes and lewd remarks come from our lips (Colossians 3:8)?

...when we take off our clothes and wear bikinis, short shorts, halter-type tops, no tops, low-plunge tops, split skirts, skin-tight clothes, see-through clothes, etc. (1 Timothy 2:9-10; Galatians 5:19)?

...when we watch TV programs and movies that are filled with and promote any and all types of immoral conduct (1 Peter 2:11)?

...when we demote the sanctity of the home by divorcing and remarrying for any flippant excuse (Matthew 19:9)?

...when we forsake the assembling of ourselves together (Hebrews 10:25)?

The fact is, we are telling them that being a Christian does not mean we must act differently from the world (1 John 2:15-17; Ephesians 4:17-24). By our actions, we are telling them that we can love the world and love God at the same time (James 4:4). We are telling them that it is okay to place God in second or third place (Matthew 6:33). Then we ask, “Why did our youngsters leave the faith?”
