What Does The Lord Require of Thee?

Bill Goring

Micah 6:1-8 “And what does the Lord require of thee?” And then answers his own question with the words, “To do justly, and to love mercy, and to walk humbly with thy God.” Augustine said.” Humility is the foundation of all other virtues; hence, in the soul in which this virtue does not exist there cannot be any other virtue... except in mere appearance”.

How shall we talk about humility? We’d all agree that humility is important, but it’s hard to talk about, isn’t it. It’s hard to define. Look it up in the dictionary and it will tell you what it’s not. Humility is “not proud or arrogant”.

How can we evaluate or measure humility? It’s hard to evaluate and measure. How humble are you? On a scale of 1–10, how many of you score 5 or better; raise your hand. How do we get humility? It’s such an elusive thing. We’ve all heard it said that the minute you think you’ve got it, you’ve lost it. So how do you get it? How do you become humble? It is something you can decide to do? “Starting tomorrow, I’m going to be humble.” Is it possible to be intentionally humble? Or is it something of a deeper that is developed in us through experience.

Maybe a deeper question than how you get humility, “Franklin Camp ask why do you want it? Careful! It’s possible and often the case, that we feign pseudo-humility to be seen as humble... in order to impress others and draw them to us”.

What Does Being Just Mean?

Justice is personal integrity shaped by God’s standard. It speaks truth, keeps promises, and treats neighbors with equity. The Lord calls His people to learn good, seek justice, correct oppression, defend the fatherless, and plead for the widow (Isaiah 1:17). He commands true justice and compassion, without oppression or hidden malice (Zechariah 7:9–10). Wisdom adds that doing righteousness and justice honors God (Proverbs 21:3), and His law insists on honest measures and fair dealings (Leviticus 19:35–36). In Christ’s body this looks like truthful speech, holy self-control, honest labor that becomes generosity, and edifying words that give grace (Ephesians 4:25–29). It also refuses partiality toward rich or poor (James 2:1–9). Justice becomes a habit of the heart that touches every transaction and every relationship.

Good Works!

Toney L. Smith

When I hear someone say, “God has given us no works that are associated with salvation!” I wonder what Noah would say to that statement. He was commanded to build an ark; Hebrews 11:7 “By faith Noah, being warned of God of things not seen as yet, moved with fear, prepared an ark to the saving of his house; by the which he condemned the world, and became heir of the righteousness which is by faith.” Do you think that some work was required in the ark’s construction? And the only power tools he had were the eight souls who were saved by an obedient faith. (Genesis 6:13-22). This means they worked the plan given by God, and not something of their own design or an altered blueprint (Deuteronomy 4:2; 12:32; Proverbs 30:6; Revelation 22:18-19).

Dorcas was a lady who is described this way: “Now there was at Joppa a certain disciple named Tabitha, which by interpretation is called Dorcas: this woman was full of good works and alms deeds which she did” (Acts 9:36). What does “... full of good works mean?” Could she have been full of good works without doing any work? The reasonable mind would know that would be impossible! Paul said, “As we have therefore opportunity, let us do good unto all men, especially unto them who are of the household of faith” (Galatians 6:10). James, by inspiration said, “Even so faith, if it hath not works, is dead, being alone” (James 2:17). Also, in James 2:24 “Ye see then how that by works a man is justified, and not by faith only.” And what about James 4:17 “Therefore to him that knoweth to do good, and doeth it not, to him it is sin.”

Scripture insists that all works set forth by God must be obeyed if we are to be counted faithful.
