The Dreaded Task.

(Richard Massey)

"I found the task that I had dreaded so was not so difficult when once begun it was the dread itself that was the foe. And dread once conquered means a victory won."

How true is the above statement? The first time brethren asked me to teach a Bible class (it was 5th and 6th graders), I recoiled… grimly dreading even the thought. I guess the elders were hard-pressed for teachers, so they twisted my arm until I finally relented. Once I got started, however, the task became such a joy that I did not want to stop. I even enjoyed decorating the classroom with my own homemade posters. I have been teaching ever since and am enjoying every minute.

It is the "getting started" that seems to be the real hurdle. If we can get past that, the rest goes easier. Is there a hurdle between you and attending Bible class, or attending on Sunday nights? Is there a hurdle for you in leading a public prayer, or inviting your neighbor to church? Each victory we win over dread brings precious benefits. One result is that we become a fruitful and stronger Christian. Dread makes us weak and unproductive.

Are there important things that you should be doing, but because of dread you have not accomplished them? Let me encourage you to get past the dread. Look to the Lord for strength (Ephesians 6:10-11; Philippians 4:13). Lean on your brethren for support (Galatians 6:2). Remember, it is "not so difficult when once begun."

How Many Ways To Heaven?

(Frank Dunn – Deceased)

Heaven must be a wonderful place, where there will be no tears, no pain, no more death, no sorrow (Revelation 21:4). Surely everyone who believes in heaven wants to go there. But we hear people say, "It doesn't matter what you believe; we're all going to the same place."

Strange as it may seem, we are all going to the same place. We are all on our way to meet our God in the judgment! "And as it is appointed unto men once to die, but after this the judgment" (Hebrews 9:27). The most important question is: How can I prepare to meet him, so that God will say to me, "Then shall the King say unto them on his right hand, Come, ye blessed of my Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world" (Matthew 25:34).

Men say there are many ways to heaven; let each person choose his own way. Jesus taught there is only one way- His way- the way of faith and obedience. "Jesus saith unto him, I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me." (John 14:6). "There is one body (His church), one Spirit…one hope… one Lord, one faith, one baptism, One God and Father of all, who is above all, and through all, and in you all" (Ephesians 4:4-6).

Christ is the "author of eternal salvation unto all them that obey him" (Hebrews 5:9). Jesus said, "He that believeth and is baptized shall be saved" (Mark 16:16); also, "Be thou faithful unto death, and I will give thee a crown of life" (Revelation 2:10). All who continue to live in faithful obedience to the word of Christ are on the way to heaven. But Jesus warned that many are traveling the broad way that leads to destruction (Matthew 7:13-14 "Enter ye in at the strait gate: for wide is the gate, and broad is the way, that leadeth to destruction, and many there be which go in thereat: Because strait is the gate, and narrow is the way, which leadeth unto life, and few there be that find it.").
